

RIBO Council Public Member, Bryan Davies

Bryan has had extensive financial sector and governance experience in both the private and public sectors and has served on several private and publicly traded corporate boards.

In addition to his role on Council at RIBO he is currently Vice Chair of Metrolinx, Ontario's agency responsible for regional transit. He also serves on several philanthropic boards.

Over the course of his varied career, he held a number of Deputy Ministerial positions in the Government of Ontario, including as Deputy Treasurer and Deputy Minister of Economics, served as Vice President of Business Affairs at the University of Toronto and held the position of Senior Vice President of Regulatory Affairs for Royal Bank Financial Group. He has served on various charitable and non-for-profit boards in the education and heritage fields.

His background in financial regulation is deep. He was the inaugural Chair of the Financial Services Regulatory Authority (FSRA), was Chair of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation from 2006 to 2016, served as Co-President of the Canadian Securities Transition Office and was Superintendent of the Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO) from 2002 to 2005.

Bryan is a graduate of the University of Toronto and of Queen's University and his distinguished public sector leadership was recognized by the Institute of Public Administration of Canada which awarded him the 2010 Vanier Medal.
